WILES. WALLACE'S

How He Fascinated a Watering Place.

Confiding People Who Cheerfully Cashed His Checks and Confiding People Who Are Now Mourning IIIs Absence-The Brief and Meteoric Carcer of a Young Summer Resort Deceiver.

NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—A man of good address visited Sayville, L. 1., some weeks ago, putting up at the Foster House. The stranger gave his name as Wallace. He could tell a good story and excelled at playing lawn tennis, sailing boats or playing base-ball, and soon made many friends. At times he appeared pressed for eash, but checks were handy and more than one of them is in the pockets of several of the residents of Sayville, as memoirs of Wallace.

The first check he gave to Mr. Foster as payment for board. Then he borrowed $25 from a Mr. Brant, a storekeeper, under the pretense that he was broke but would receive money by the evening mail and return it. He iried to get some from others, but their pockets were light. He then started for the l'atchogue Bank, to have another check eashed, stopping on John Smith. He had been at Smith's place before, and as he spent his money freely, Smith was glad to see him. As he was about leaving Smith handed him $25 with the request, as he was going to Pat-chogue, that he hand it to Mr. Bishop, in payment for some wine which he was to order. Wallace was pleased to know that he could be of service to his friend, and took the money and to Patchogue again he went. He ordered the wine for Smith, but forgot to pay. The following day he went to the beach with the Sayville fire boys and, as he opened many bottles of wine, was the hero of the day. As the party were about to leave the bench, Walface offered Mr. Furguson, the proprietor of the house where the party had been entermined, a check for $200 in settlement of his bill. Mr. Furguson could not at the time give him but $100 cash. Wallace said that it was all right; he would be over to the beach again in a few days, when Mr. Furguson could give him the balance. That night Wallace went West in the 8 o'clock train, and while Furguson, Foster, and others held these beautiful checks Wallace skipped with the cash. He was one pullar men that ever visited Sayville, and will not soon be forgotten.

TURBULENT CHINA.

Further About the Riots and the Threatened War.

London, Sept. 12.—The Standard in an editorial says the news from Canton indicates that a quarrel is imminent between the British naval forces in China and the natives, relative to the commercial relations of the two countries and the safety of life and property of English residents. The British Government may eaution France and China against molesting British subjects residing there.

The Telegraph says that the French Government must not delay action any longer. If they are to be masters of the situation, as they claim they will be, they must gain the mastery at once or the situation will soon master them.

The Daily News says the question coneerns all Europe and especially England and Gormany, whose vital interests are menaced.

The Times says the English Government can not interfere unasked. If the Freuch want Tonquin they must fight China Paris, Sept. 12.—The National says Should the pending negotiations between France and China, as is feared, not take a favorable turn, the French Cabinet is disposed to call an extraordinary session of the Chamber of Deputies.

It is understood Challemal Lacour, Foreign Minister, is in favor of according large concessions to China in the interestpeace. The Ministers of War and Marine, however, consider it a matter of duty and honor to resist the encroachments of China and Tonquin.

London, Sept. 12.—The Secretary of the Chinese Legation here has left for Walmer Castle to wait upon Lord Gran ville, the British Foreign Sceretary. Ther are signs that the measurem of Englanin the Franco-Chinese imbroglio wii eventually be invoked, but no appeal los American mediation is deemed probable.

LONDON, Sept. 12 .- The Admiralty dispatch concerning the Canton riots also stated that two British war ships are now at that place. They are prepared to take any action necessary to protect English residents and property. No more vesselare now guarding the city. They was undoubtedly be able to prevent any further outbreak. LONDON, Sept. 12.—Later dispatches from Hong Kong state that the Chinese niob at Cauton burned thirteen houses belonging to European merchants.

The Cincinnati Hoat Race.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 12.—The rowing race was easily won by Hosmer who took the arst prize, Lee the second, Layberger the third and Priddy the fourth. The weather and the water were very favorable and an immense concourse of people lined both banks of the river. Probably 50,000 persons witnessed the contest. After the race Hanlan gave a beautiful exhibition. He appeared on the scene dressed in a blue sleeveless suit, and after pulling over the course rather rapidly came in at the bome stretch with a magnificent spurt that

KIDNAPPING A DESERTER. Story Told by an Enlisted Man in the United States Army.

OTTAWA, Ont., Sept. 12.—The attention of the Dominion Government has been called to an alleged case of kidnapping by United States soldiers, who entered Canadian territory, as is stated, and captured and took back with them a deserter who had sought refuge under the British flag. It appears that in the spring of 1882 Frank Switzer left his home in Ontario and went to the United States in search of employment. He enlisted in the United States eavalry and was sent to Fort McGinnis, M. T. He states that all the soldiering he did was to work early and late with pickaxe and shovel. Last April he was ordered out on detached service, which he asserts was making ditches and laying pipes at Fort Assiniboin. Not being able to stand hard work any longer he, with n eompanion, bade good by to the United States Army and took the trail for Cauada. The second day after leaving they were joined by another deserter from Camp

Morris, and together the three crossed on to British Government soil. When about eighteen miles from Fort Walsh and thirty from the international boundary line they were arrested by a detachment of mounted troops from Fort Assiniboin, to which station they were taken back as prisoners to be tried for desertlon. If after investigation the facts are as stated by Switzer, the Canadian Government will no doubt call for an explanation through the British Minister at Washington. The Canadian press state that if the facts are as reported by Switzer, the Dominion Government is imperatively ealled upon to take cognizance of the matter.

TOO THIN.

Innocent Boys Arrested to Cover

Another's Guilt. New York, Sept. 12.—David Glass and Arno Harald, two young men from Law-rence, Mass., registered at the Putnam House, on Fourth avenue, on Monday, and took a room in the house. Nothing is said in criticism of their behavior as lodgers up to Saturday, when they were urrested. On that day Mr. Lawrence Kerr, the proprietor, left $300 on the safe in his office, in the second story. He locked the door, went away, and did not return for three hours. Then he found that some one had taken the money. A chambermaid saw the two young men in the ladies' sitting room, which adjoins the office, but does not communicate with it. On this evidence the young men were arrested by Policemen Gerrow and Coroy of the East Twenty-second street station. Glass had about $348 upon him and Harald $28. The police said the prisoners might easily have stolen the money if they were able to walk fly fashion along the face of the building from the window of the sitting room to the window of the office by means of a very narrow coping for a foothold.

The young men tearfully told Judge Herrmann, in Yorkville Court, that they had worked steadily in a mill in Lawrence five years, and would send for the Chief of Police of Lawrence and their employer, who would account for the money in their possession. Mr. Kerr's son at first told the police that his father left about $50 in

FROM THE FROST.

Estimate of the Damage Done, According to the Former's Review.

Cuicado, Sept. 12.—The Enriners's Review, from very extended advices, publishes the following comment on the injury to the corn crop by the recent frosts; "Frosts of greater or less severity have been experienced throughout Minnesota, Wisconsin, Northern and Northeastern Iowa, Northern Illinois and Indiana, and the entire State of Michigan, cansing serious injury to late corn. This injury it is lunpossible at this writing to necurately determine. In all the territory visited by frosts some fields were so fully matured us to receive no damage. In many parts eorn on high ground eseaped injury, while that on low ground was severely cut. It will be safe, we think, to estimate the injury in the territory named at twenty-live per cent. of the estimated crop, and it may exceed this estimate. Throughout the same territory other minor erops, such as tobacco, hops, tomatoes, and other tender garden vegetables, as well as grapes, were greatly in-jured or atterly ruined. In Kansas, Ne-brasku, Southern and Western lowa, Southern Illinois and Indiana, and all other portions of the corn producing country, no material injury is reported.

IN DEADLY COMBAT

Fearful Fight in a Darkened Room.

The Latest Bloody Scrape of the Rampant Cow Boys-Eight Men in a Bloody Hand to Hand Fight In a Darkened Room-Only Two Succced in Escaping.

DENVER, Cal., Sept. 12.—The details of a bloody afray, which occurred at the McLain ranche, Elbert county, Sunday night, in which eight cowboys were engaged, have just reached this city. Sanday was a day off, and all went to Agate Station, on the Kansas Pacific Road, and, falling in with a companion, opened the festivities with several drinks. Thence they rode to a neighboring ranche, where they obtained a supply of liquor and started home. On the way, two named Rositer and McKeever engaged in an angry dispute about a trivial matter, and all repaired to the herders's quarters to settle the difficulty. As soon as they were inside, the men clinched, and both fell to the ground, fighting desperately, the reompanions urging them on. The tables and benches were removed and in a ring improvised the men beat and tore at each other with the ferocity of tigers, while the pn-lookers in their excitement madly bawled and danced about, citement madly bawled and danced about, brandishing revolvers and encouraging their favorite in the fight. It was a weird, blood curdling sight. While the orgic was at its highest an oil lamp was knocked from its place, and the room was in darkness. The men, mad, ran upon each other, and in a minute after the light had been extinguished the melee was general. The door being locked, and there being no means of egress, each man was for himself. Amid resounding blows and curses a pistol shot resounding blows and curses a pistol shot rang out, and the death ery of the victim paralyzed whatever of reason was left in the party. Almost before the ery left the lips of the unfortunate man there was n wild fusilade, and for a moment the room was lit by the fitful flash of the pistol. When the gloom lifted a bloody scene was revealed. Rossiter was dead, the two Jones' lay weltering in their blood, and three others were wounded, some fataily. Rollins and McKeever, the only ones not injured, have fled, and are not yet appre-

A Calored Woman Polsons a Family

at Cairo, Ill. and Also Herself. CAIRO, Ill., Sept. 12.—A colored woman named Kate Cotton, who had a spite against Alf Miller because he wouldn't marry her, went to the house of Louis McMurry, Miller's father-in-law and asked for a cup of coffee. Finding none made, she volunteered to make n pot full to get one herseft, and was granted permission. After making it she left the house and said she would return soon for a cup, but, not returning, the fumily finished cooking their supper and sat down to eat. In a short time they were all taken sick, and one, named Jerry Thompson, died. His wife is very low, and Alf. Miller and Louis MeMurray are langerously ill. Dr. Sullivan was called, and pronounced that they all had been pois:med.

Villard's Triumphal March. PORTLAND, Oregon, Sept. 12.—President

Villard's party reached l'ortland during the night. All are enthusiastic over their trip, which has been full of interesting incidents, but free from any serious accidents. Portland is preparing to give her visitors a grand reception. The city is claborately decorated, and a procession, speeches, and bunquets are part of the programme here. Several days will be spent in Portland and vicinity. From the point of the last spike driving to the present terminus there has been a repetition of the previous decorations at all towns and cities passed, and the same warm welcome.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 12.—A meeting of aetive Democratic politicians was held at the Burnet House Wednesday afternoon, to see if some means could not be adopted whereby the conflicting elements in the party in Hamilton county might be harmonized. A resolution was adopted set-ting forth the desirability of bringing about such a result. The movement has not as yet gained much impetus.

A DEMOCRATIC VIEW

The New York Sun on Possible Republican Candidates.

New York, Sept. 12.—The Sun says: "In respect of candidates for the Presidential nomination the Republicans are rather worse off than the Democrats. Their number of first-class available men is very small. Blaine says he won't; John Sherman ean't, and Conkling gives no sign, and they are very uncertain where the honor can be bestowed. One of the most frequent notions umong Republicans who, in former days talked of reforming within the party, but now eherish that fancy less confidently, is that George F. Edmunds, of Vermont, shall be their candidate. He is beyond the average of Republican smart men, able as a lawyer and experienced as a Senator. He has served in the Senate more than seventeen years, and on the Republican side is the leader in that body. But there is one decisive objection to him as a Presidential candidate-he assisted in the initiation, the development and the consummation of the electoral fraud of 1876-7."

VALUABLE PROPERTY.

A Disgusted Druggist's Recent Purchase at Auction.

Saco, Me., Sept. 12.—Mr. Stephen S. Mitchell, a druggist, while in Boston the other day, dropped in at an anction of unclaimed freight and purchased a box, of the contents of which he was ignorant. When Mr. Mitchell opened the box he found that he was the owner of about 2,000 manuscript sermons, formerly the property of a Methodist elergyman. The elergyman had written along the margin of his pages such curious suggestions to himself as the following: "Deliver this passage in solemn tones;" "Seornful smile after the word 'never;'" "Pause long enough to eount twenty-five after this passage. sage;" "Close Bible with violent slam after this passage;" "Contemplate eeiling in attitude of adoration at this point;" "Sarcastic wave of hand;" "Rapid gestnre." Manuscripts sermons do not possess a charm for Mr. Mitchell, and he does not a graphy know what to do with his proposers. exactly know what to do with his property.

DESERTING BUTLER.

Wendell Phillips Charges Itim With Political Treachery.

Boston, Sept. 12 .- At a meeting of a few of the chief men of the Greenback party, it was said that Wendell Phillips and decided that he could no longer honestly support Butler for Bovernor or far any great office, having become convinced that he, tempted by the lure of the Presidency, had abandoned the cause of the workingman and allied his political fortimes with the money power. Desertions by Greenbackers are reported, one that of a gentleman who was once a cand date on the same State ticket with Butler. Leading Greenbackers here consider that Phillips' attitude will make a profound impression.

A NEW POLICE.

Arrangements Made in Egypt for Public Safety.

London, Sept. 12.—Mr. Plifford Lloyd, recently appointed I'nder Secretary of the home department for Egypt, has formed a new Egyptian police, the backbone of which is Irish. Clarke not returning the next duy, Goode began making investigations, and discovered he was the victim of a horse-thief. # Mitchell and Slade.

Kansas City, Sept. 12-Tuesday was the day originally fixed for the Mitchell and Slade match, and early in the morning a number of would-be-spectators applied for excursion tickets, thinking that the recent announcements were simply to mislead the authorities, and that the fight would really take place. reasonable prices.

The dronth in New England continues. In Massachusetts it is severe. Vegetation is so far gone in many localities that rain would not now revive it.

THE Lexington Press says: Governor Blackburn is going to institute at Louisville a sanitarium for the cure of inebriates and those addicted to opiates.

THE records in the office of the Secretary of State at Frankfort show that there are about 282,000 qualified voters people, for I know that it ought not to in Kentucky, and that of these only 87,-000 voted at the last election in favor of calling a Constitutional Convention, con-though the heavens full. sequently the matter fails and no convention will be held.

THE recent fire at Lexington, it is now considered certain, was the act of an incendiary. The loss is fully $40,000 and is partly covered by insurance. Fortynine mules and horses perished and fourteen cars were destroyed. The stable is to be rebuilt immediately and new cars have already been ordered from Little Rock, Ark., and elsewhere.

The Lexington Press says: A Press reporter saw Ellis Craft in jail. He had heard that the Court of Appeals had refused to grant him a new trial. He seemed somewhat downhearted. He said that he didn't know what might imppen, but that he was innocent and would declare his innocence with his parting breath. He insisted that it was nothing but prejudice that prompted the Court of Appeals to decide us it had, and claimed that the court affirmed this time on what it reversed before.

THE September report of the Department of Agriculture in Washington will be less favorable as regards corn and cotton than the report for August. The weather has been bad for corn and frosts have injured it. The Department estimates that the crop will amount to from 1,500,000,000 to 1,600,000,000 bushels. There are 68,000,000 acres planted. Cotton has suffered from drouth. Rust has appeared over nearly the whole of the cotton growing region. The general average condition is reduced to seventy four per cent.

Hints to Be Remembered in Carlag Tobacco.

W. H. Rudolph in the Clarksville Democrat of the 1st inst., snys:

As much of the value of a large per cent, of the tobacco crop is lost in the curing process it may not be out of place at the beginning of the housing season to drop a few hints to the farmers on this subject.

Let the body of the barn be tight from eighteen inches above the ground to the eaves, the nearer air tight the better, vet planked and stripped is particularly good. Arrange to lacke from ten to twelve inches of opening near the ground, amounting to one-half of each side and end to be closed or opened at will. Leather hinges are inexpensive and wear well. At each end above the eaves have openings that fully equal the openings below. The object of this is to cause a draught of dry, heated air to pass directly through the tobacco, carrying off all moisture from the barn, leaving the tolmeco clear and free from any house burn or sweaty appearance which a close barn and excessive heat is almost sure to do. A very high degree of heat is not necessary when the ventilation is good, earrying off all moisture as it evoporated from the sappy weed. Never crowd until the leaf is fully cured. My experience and observation has been that a little extra attention in curing the crop will pay a larger profit on the investment than any other labor on the farm. Furthermore, you are made glad by the extrn price it will bring, which will stimulate you to still improve and yet reach higher prices, while the purchaser is glad to pay you these high prices to get what he wants. Try this and you will not re-

CRAFT TALKS.

He Writes a Letter in Which He Protes's His Innocence and Condemns His Enemies.

Lexington Press.

LEXINGTON, September 11, 1883.

To the Public: I desire to write a few lines to the public to show this world the great wrong that men have done to me without any cause, but it is all done for the "almighty dollar." I now ask what benefit will it be to the State of Kentucky to hang an Innocent man? Will it give it a big name to hang an innooent man? But hang me if you will; it will be innocent blood on the head of every one that had anything to do with taking my life from me, and the day will come when my blood will cry out against them for the great wrong that they have done me. The poor (Gibbons) children are now dead and gone, but bow they came to their denth is unknown to me, for dence, with cheap rents, churches and good God knows, and the men who put this job up on me know, that I am just as innocent of that crime as a new-born babe. So I kindly ask every man who handles my case to handle it carefully, and to be sure and lay aside all prejudices and think the matter over and place himself in my condition, innocent as I am, for I am clear of shedding the blood of any man, woman or child on earth; but to-day I stand condemned to die for what some low brute has done. I am powerless to help myself, but the great God who rules the heavens and the earth will one day bring the guilty party to justice, and then you will all see the great wrong that THE Governor has offered a reward of has been done me. Just think of it! $200 to any person who will arrest and What a horrible deed it is to hang an deliver into the custody of the law Pres- innocent man. How will you feel when ton Lawson, the murderer of Peter the sod? Think of it! When I am in the silent tomb, and those who committed the hellish crime come out and confess the murder of those blessed little children, what will be your feelings? I tell you just as sure as the world stands to-day, God will bring the guilty party to justice, and I will be found as innocent as a lamb, and it will strike this world with a shudder that will almost cause it to tremble, and then you will see how deceitful men can be. Now, all I ask is justice and fair play, and let me live, and one day you will see and know that I am right and honest in every word be for unything I have ever done. I am innocent of what I am charged with, and I now ask that justice be done me

Kentucky Annual Conference of the M. E. Church, South.

CYNTHIANA, KY., Sep. 12, 1883.

Ed. Bulletin: Your correspondent arrived here Monday afternoon, and is comfortably provided for in the elegant home of Mrs. Dille. Yesterday the several committees were engaged in examing the undergraduates in the ministry. No reports yet before the conference of these examinations, though from what we can learn they were generally very creditable.

Last evening the beautiful Methodist Church was well filled for public service. The sermon was preached from I. John, iii., 9. The speaker very clearly enforced the doctrine of the text—claiming that the doctrine it contains is true, and that it is not to be understood in any modified sense.

This morning a conference prayer-meeting was held, beginning at 8:30, and Coffee ..... continuing thirty minutes. At nine o'clock the conference was opened by religious services, conducted by Rev. Bishop Keener, with the venerable and dearly beloved Rev. Bishop Kavanaugh in the pulpit. Bishop Keener is the presiding bishop, and is looking almost as strong and youthful as when he held our conference at Danville two years ago. He is a strong man, a profound thinker, and a highly esteemed lather in the church. After the angular strong and youthful as when he held MR. ROBERT W. BROWNING announces that he is a emdldate tor City Marshal at the ensuing January election, on the first Monday in January, 1884. Your support is soiletted. the church. After the opening services the roll was called, and nearly all of the one hundred and forty members answered to their names.

Our hearts were much touched when the name of our dear brother, Rev. Dr. C. Miller, who has been entirely disabled for nearly two years was called and the respone was heard, "Tnank God am here. The Presiding Elders were appointed a committee to appoint the various committees required by the church law and

Rev. S. F. Vanmeter was elected Secretary and W. F. Rowland his assistant. Rev. Dr. Morton, secretary of the Church extension Society, was introduced to the conference and made a few remarks. He will probably make an address this evening in the interests of the cause he represents.

He Talks From an Ultra-Republican Standpoint.

An Enthusiastic View of Republican Chauces That May Not Be Sustained by Results-A Glimpse of the Ohio Political Situation as Viewed Through Very Strong Republican Spectucles.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 12.—Governor Foster, of Ohio, is in Washington, and looks as happy as though the election of next month was won. He is bubbling over with confidence that it will be carried by the Republicans. Said he to a group of friends who gathered round him at the Riggs: "You know a law that makes sonfe other man pay a part of the taxes is popular. The Scott law we have put in operation has put $2,000,000 in the treasury. Not a Democratic candidate for the Legislature dare say he is ngainst it now, although they are all started to run on a platform whose chief plank was opposition to it. We carry Cuyuhoga county, where the Democrats are badly split, and, in-deed, would earry it anyhow. We lost at the last election by the stay-at-homes in the country, so that the city vote was not offset by the usual Western Reserve majorities. We have now a fair chance to earry Cincinnati. There are fatal breaches in the Democratic ranks and the operations of the Scott law did away with the Liquor Dealers' Association as a political machine. We shall elect Foraker beyond question by a handsome majority, and we are still more eertain, if anything, of getting the Legisla-ture. We shall, however, carry the whole thing. Our party is in splendid shape within itself, while the success of the Democrats a year ago demoralized them. The prohibition amendments will poll a large vote, not less than 300,000. I think this is the question in our State that must be met and settled one way or the other. The Democrats have been put in a ridienlous light by an effort to catch the farmers by advocating a higher wool tariff. It was too transpurent when it was shown that if the Democrats had had their own way we should have had no protection on wool at all. We have them on the protection question because the history of their whole life is against the protection they are try-ing now to assume."

A COSTLY SPREE.

A Baltimorean Goes on a Drunk and Loses Nearly $1,100.

PRILADELPRIA, Sept. 12.—William II. Bingler, n boat bullder who says he resides in Baltimore, was noticed in company with four men, who were acting in a suspicious manner, at the corner of Water and Arch streets. The whole party was taken to the Fourth District station house by Officer Nagle. Bingler was very much intoxicated, but managed to explain that he land sold a piece of property in Baltimore for $1,100 and had come to Philadelphia with the eash. He arrived here about four days ago, promptly got drunk, and remained so, and when searched at the station had $12.14 in his possession. The gentleman who informed the officer about the company he was in said that he saw a large amount of money hundled between the men, but the officers were un-nble to find it. The men gave their names as James McCann, of 1014 Buttonwood street; John Lehy, of 117 Callowhill street; George Little, of Washington, D C., and Charles Gosmc. They said that they were directing Bingler to the boat for Baltimore, but, as it had gone an hour before, they were arrested. The explanation was not satisfactory.
